Relationships

No man is an island, and as human beings, most of us are dependent on good relationships to provide security and stability. However, relationships can be fraught with difficulties. As humans we all yearn for, and have a need for companionship, caring and support. When we were children we sought this in our best friend, and as we grow older we transfer some of these needs to the search for a life companion, a husband or a wife: we all seek some sort of union which may or may not be enshrined in the social institution of marriage. This seminar explores the concept of relationships and the astrological indicators in the natal chart which describe an individual's capacity and desire to form relationships and their ability to pursue them.

Relationships is available from the Astrology @ Home CD Series.

Fertility in the natal Chart

The importance of children and the ability of a person to have and to benefit from them has been an important consideration in all times and across all cultures. In our children, we invest our present but also our future. It is children who will carry the family line, the family name, traditions, business and wealth from one generation to the next. This seminar will examine the traditional literature and the application of principles and techniques to determine the potential of an individual to have and raise children as well as benefit from them.

The Crone and the Asteroids

The Sacred Female is often perceived through the three separate titles of Maid, Mother and Crone. The Crone or Wise-woman, is perhaps the most feared, and fearful, of the Trinity, as history has often cast her in dark roles in mythology and symbolism. However, the Crone has the capacity to bring forward both light and dark qualities within us, if only we are willing to spend some time in her company, and accept her duality as a natural force in our own lives.

The four major Asteroids : Ceres, Pallas Athene, Juno, and Vesta also reflect differing aspects of the Sacred Female. In this seminar, we take the opportunity to marry the nature and mythology of the Crone, to the Asteroids in the natal chart, in order to explore the Crone's wisdom and her unique message for us.

Maid, Mother, Crone is available in two Parts on Astrology @ Home CD Series. Part One : Symbols of the Sacred Female, Part Two : Myths of the Sacred Female.

The Moon's Lot : The Significance of the Part of Fortune

One of the oldest Hermetic texts, Panaretos, mentions the seven Lots ; that is, the capacity of each of the original planets to be judged according to their own Lot, or Destiny. These Lots were considered to be a major force in determining the nature of the 'soul' of the individual, and yet, today, we barely acknowledge their existence.

This seminar examines the remaining Part, the Part of Fortune, and looks at how it is created, how it is judged, and what are its uses. Drawing from some of the oldest sources on astrology, we will explore these factors, and look at how we might gain the greatest value from this ancient Part in our modern astrological practice.

The Part of Fortune is available in two Parts on Astrology @ Home CD Series.
